Debtor

OBJECTION TO CLAIM

NOW COMES the Debtor above-named, through counsel, who respectfully objects to proof of claim # 4 filed by the creditor eCAST Settlement Corporation, assignee of Chase Bank USA, N.A. (hereinafter "eCast") and dated December 31, 2009, for the following reasons:

1. The Proof of Claim filed by eCast does not, in contravention of Federal Bankruptcy Rule 3001(c), include a copy of the writing upon which is based or a statement of the circumstances under which such writing was lost or destroyed.
2. Accordingly, pursuant to In re Andrews, 394 B.R. 384, 388 (Bankr. E.D.N.C. 2008), this claim should not be considered presumptively valid.
3. Further, pursuant to In re Forrest, Case No. 06-01967-8-RDD (Bankr. E.D.N.C. May 22, 2009) and Unifund CCR Partners v Dover, 681 S.E.2d 565, 2009 WL 2180672 (N.C.App. July 21, 2009) the Proof of Claim does not satisfy the requirements for an account stated, namely that the Proof of Claim does not include an "itemization of credit extended to cover individual transactions." Id.
4. Further, the Proof of Claim contains no verification that either eCast or Thomas A. Lee, who prepared this Proof of Claim is "in any way connected to the establishment or maintenance of the alleged credit card account...." Id.
5. Lastly, as this Proof of Claim was filed after October 1, 2009 and as eCast is, upon information and belief, a "debt buyer", it is, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b), subject to the requirements of N.C.G.S. § 58-70-115(5). This requires that American InforSource, which is, upon information and belief and pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 58-70-15(b)(4), a 'debt buyer', provide "reasonable verification" of the amount allegedly owed by the Debtors, with "reasonable verification" being defined to "include documentation of the name of the original creditor, the name and address of the debtor as appearing on the original creditors's records, the original consumer account number,a copy of the contract or other document evidencing the consumer debt, and an itemized accounting of the amount claimed to be owed, including all fees and charges."

6. It is conceded that the Proof of Claim contains the name of the original creditor, the name and address of the debtor as appearing on the original creditor's records, a redacted consumer account number. The Proof of Claim does not, however, include either a copy of the contract or other document evidencing the consumer debt or an itemized accounting of the amount claimed to be owed, including all fees and charges.
7. As such, not only should the claim of eCast be disallowed, but it could be found in violation of the Consumer Economic Protection Act of 2009 and subject to actual damages, including attorneys' fees, and civil penalties of not less than $500.00 and not more than $4,000.00. The Debtors are not currently seeking such an award, but do not waive their right to do so should eCast contest this Objection.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor prays that the Court enter an Order disallowing the claim in its entirety and that the Court preclude eCast from amending its claim without first seeking leave to do so.
